RISE

REDEFINING THE STANDARD OF CARE IN HIDRADENITIS SUPPURATIVA

INVITATION

JOIN US for an opportunity to learn about the efficacy and safety of the latest advanced therapy for hidradenitis suppurativa (HS).

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this learning activity, participants will be better able to:

- Explain the effect of targeting IL-17A and IL-17F in the treatment of HS
- Discuss the importance of early intervention and higher treatment targets in HS
- Summarize efficacy and safety data for bimekizumab in HS

This session will be presented by:

Dr. Sam Armstrong MD, FRCPC

Dermatologist
24 Linden Avenue
Charlottetown, PEI

Date

Thursday, January 21

Time

6:30PM

Agenda

6:30PM Welcome & Registration

6:35PM Presentation Start

7:15PM Q&A

Location

Sims Steakhouse & Oyster Bar
86 Queen Street
Charlottetown, PEI

RSVP

Please confirm your participation by emailing your Representative. Kindly ensure you provide a valid email address.

A modest meal will be provided for in-person events; if you'd prefer not to receive one, please let us know when confirming your registration.
Please note that meals are not provided for participants joining online for hybrid or virtual events.

Terri Maynard

506 871 6590

terri.maynard@ucb.com

This learning activity has been made possible by UCB Canada Inc.